REPORT

Date May 6, 1933.

Subject (in full) 1267 Tatung Road

Made by D.I. Papp Forwarded by Supt. Quayle

T.J. Nien P.P. refers to one Nien Wen Yuen (嚴文元) 39, native of Laungshan, Chekiang, who resides with his family at 1267 Tatung Road - the address given in the attached letter of April 25, 1933. Nien Wen Yuen has been residing at the above address, which is a small dwelling house located in the Sz Wen Lee alleyway, for the past 5 years. Nien owns and manages together with one Koo (顧) a small tooth powder factory and is also engaged in the sale of motor cars. The tooth factory is now located at Tien Pau Lee (天寶里) alleyway off Haining Road, Chapei, whereto it was removed from No: 1245 Taku Road about 6 months ago.

Attempts made with a view to purchasing narcotics at the above address have been unsuccessful. C.D.S. 76 visited the above address on two occasions and ascertained that the members of the household are not addicted to opium or its substitues.

My dear Givens,

During the examination of a Dane, HENRY BISJBERG, with regard to a charge of opium smuggling which could not be substantiated, the Berlin Police found the following address:

T.J.Nien P.P.
1267 Tatung Road,
Shanghai

I send the above in case this address may be connected with the smuggling of narcotics.

Yours sincerely,

James Barlow.
